

B. REFERENCES FOR COMMISSIONED PAPERS

Available at www.ncvc.org/ict

- 1 E-Governance Strategies: Tools to Enhance Community Policing
by Ari Schwartz and Cynthia Wong

Mr. Schwartz is deputy director of the Center for Democracy and Technology where he promotes privacy protections in the digital age and expanding access to government information and services via the Internet. Ms. Wong, a former law clerk for the Center for Democracy and Technology, is the Bernstein Fellow at NYU School of Law.

- 2 Is the Information Highway a Clear Path to Better Police–Community Relations?
Some Observations from the Beat and the Street
by Bill Gellar

Mr. Gellar is director of Gellar & Associates Consulting and provides technical assistance and training on effective community policing.

- 3 Privacy Issues for Online Community Policing
by Ari Schwartz and Cynthia Wong

- 4 Privacy Considerations: A Focus on Criminal History Records
by Bob Belair

Mr. Belair, a founding partner of Oldaker, Biden & Belair, LLP, helped establish the Center for Privacy Research and Strategy, a privacy consulting firm.